Professional Summary

A seasoned recruiter with 8.5 years of experience across diverse industries and companies in Bangalore, specializing in talent acquisition, employee onboarding, and recruitment strategy. During my career, I have successfully recruited for both startups and established organizations, supporting the growth of teams with top talent. After taking a career break for 20 months, I am eager to re-enter the workforce with a refreshed skill set and a renewed passion for recruiting, bringing both expertise and a strong understanding of modern recruitment practices.
