SUMMARY

With 12 years dedicated to EdTech, I've served as a regional head and senior manager, specializing in operations, administration, and asset management. This tenure has refined my skills in effectively overseeing various facets of operations, administration, and assets, fostering a comprehensive understanding of the industry's distinctive challenges and requirements. As an Assistant Manager of Operations in a fast-paced call center for 5 years and 1 month, I successfully led teams, prioritizing efficiency and customer satisfaction. My adept management handled high call volumes, resolved inquiries, and maintained service quality standards.

Moreover, my role as a customer relations officer in a telecom company further developed my interpersonal and communication skills, emphasizing a customer-centric approach. Demonstrating a strong work ethic and adaptability throughout my professional journey, my extensive EdTech experience, coupled with proficiency in managing operations, teams, and customer relations, equips me with a versatile skill set ready to positively impact any organization.
