WORK EXPERIENCE

Blankfactor, India [They have now exited India Market] Dec '23 – Apr '24 India Recruiting Lead

Blankfactor, is a services organization mainly providing solutions to complex problems relating to payments, banking, capital markets and life sciences. In the process of developing two products in the Fintech space. Headquartered in Miami USA with existence in Bulgaria, Romania, Columbia and India

- I had built the recruitment Strategy, for the year 2024. Built the India TA process from scratch, worked on MI and sharing the possible geographies to target.
- I was in hiring candidates for AMEX, FIS and Moderna Clients requirements, Candidates were hired for Blankfactor, while being deployed to these client projects.
- I was successful in hiring 1 Performance Testing Lead, 1 Service Now Engineer Lead, 4 Mainframes Lead, 4 Java Leads, 4 FrontEnd Leads 1 QA Lead and 15 Senior Software Engineers, 1 Workday Administrator. I was able to hire 1 Senior Manager Salesforce in this short duration.
- I worked on the Internal communication dash board, for new employee onboarding experience, where we were able to capture their experience and got additional suggestions if any. I was able to encourage new joiners to share their experience in the internal dashboard.
- Revamped the offer extension process for India, where I would make it a two-step process, of extending Offer 1 and Offer 2[close to the start date] this was to mitigate the last-minute offer drops to a counter-offer from a competitor.
- Built the recruitment report in three different formats for three different clients. I would join the client calls on weekly bases to share the hiring report and the update on recruitment with the respective stakeholders.
- Due to the unfortunate development at Blankfactor India, I was also actively involved with communicating and revoking 16 offers from the candidates who were waiting to onboard us
